

NIGEL WALLBANK NAMED SIEF CHAIRMAN EMERITUS

Long-time SIIA member Nigel Wallbank was recognized for his lifetime service to the association during the opening session at SIIA's recent Spring Forum in Tampa. He was specifically named chairman emeritus of the Self-Insurance Educational Foundation (SIEF)

Nigel has been a SIIA member for more than three decades. He previously served on the association's board of directors, including board chairman. His participation also included participation on multiple committees, and he was a big supporter of SIIA's international initiative.

For the last several years, Nigel's focus has been on the Self-Insurance Educational Foundation (SIEF) through his service as board chairman. The foundation complements the work of SIIA in a variety of ways and Nigel has been a steady hand ensuring that it has stayed focused while strengthening its financial position. ■
