The Self-Insurance Educational Foundation (SIEF) regularly sponsors college student participation at various SIA conferences.

Most recently, the Foundation sponsored Nathan Harlow's attendance at SIA's 2025 National Conference in Phoenix. Nathan is studying business economics and finance at Suffolk. He is also a student athlete, playing for the school's soccer team.

Commenting on his career interest and conference experience, Nathan said "I enjoyed learning a lot about every area of self-insurance, but the roles that stuck out to me the most were stop-loss/reinsurance and brokers."
